He had practiced the routine throughout the day and was quickly through to the schedule of SD guard details inside the Government Center. Over his glass, Colman watched as three Special Duty troopers made their way to the bar. They stood erect and intimidating in their dark olive uniforms, cap-peaks pulled low over their faces, and surveyed the surroundings over, hard, jutting chins. The numbers of killed and wounded predicted for an intended operation were presented by his analysts as the "Loss Factor" and the "Combat Reduction Factor," respectively; a city selected to be incinerated along with its inhabitants was "nominated"; an area drenched with napalm and saturated with high explosive was subjected to "exploratory aggressive reconnaissance"; and a village flattened as a warning against harboring insurgents became an object of a "protective reaction." Such were the rules. . . . "But that ridiculous! What's to stop anyone walking in off the street from giving orders?" created a vast wilderness in her mind, where she enjoyed blissful solitude whenever she required it. and to let her stubbornness rest in its scabbard.
